

Shaftesbury House

Moseley

Shaftesbury House is for females aged 16 to 25. We provide accommodation for up to 10 young women in a stable and caring environment.

Office hours are 9.30am to 6.00pm. The Project is staffed 24 hours.

The property includes 9 bedsits and a bungalow which are all self-contained. With shared use of a lounge, IT room and Laundry.

A key-worker helps to prepare for independent living, together with personal and emotional development. A resettlement programme is established before move on to independent accommodation with the offer of continued support for up to two years.
