

The Great St Basils Walk

THE GREAT StBasils WALK

Next years walk (2009) is in the Brecon Beacons, Wales. Starting and finishing in Brecon. It's a great walk (as the title suggests) and one of the most spectacular we've ever organised. As always there is a half (14 miles) and full (28 miles) route and a newly designed 2009 'Badge of Honour'.

The date has now been agreed as Saturday 30th May 2009.

We will be sending out our usual invites at the beginning of the year, but if you are keen now, please email us with your interest. fundraising@stbasils.org.uk
